P9.6-B 'pork' fishy, says Alan

Cayetano sees it as war chest for a 'lame duck'

By Michael Lee/Star

OPPOSITION SENATOR ALAN PETER CAYATANO has expressed concern that the P9.6-billion transfer from the Department of Health (DOH) to the Department of Education (DepEd) is a "pork" bill, aimed at helping President Duterte's administration.

Cayetano said the transfer is a "war chest" for the president's administration, which he said is "lame duck." He said the transfer is a "pork" bill, aimed at helping President Duterte's administration.

Farmhand 'positive' for swine ebola virus

But pork is still safe to eat-DOH

By Star Staff

A 30-year-old farmhand in a swine farm in the Philippines has tested positive for the Ebola virus, but the Department of Health (DOH) said that pork is still safe to eat.

The farmhand, who is a 30-year-old man, has been isolated in a hospital. The DOH said that the virus is not transmitted through food, and that pork is still safe to eat.

Figure 1 is a line graph showing the effect of the concentration of the inhibitor on the rate of polymerization. The y-axis is labeled "Rate of polymerization" and ranges from 0 to 1.0. The x-axis is labeled "Concentration of inhibitor" and ranges from 0 to 1.0. The graph shows a decreasing trend in the rate of polymerization as the concentration of the inhibitor increases. The curve starts at (0, 1.0) and ends at approximately (1.0, 0.2).

Festival lifts spirit despite downturn

By Carlo S. Reyes
Special to the Inquirer

THE 2007 Metro Manila Festival, which began on Jan. 23, is expected to be a success despite the downturn in the economy.

Performers in traditional attire during the Metro Manila Festival.

The festival, which is the largest and longest-running cultural celebration in the Philippines, is expected to attract millions of visitors and generate significant revenue for the city.

The festival's theme for this year is "The Spirit of the People," which aims to showcase the diverse cultural heritage of Metro Manila and its surrounding areas.

The festival's organizers hope that the event will not only provide entertainment for the public but also serve as a platform for promoting the city's tourism and economic development.

The red dress is a classic. It's a timeless piece that every woman should have in her wardrobe. It's a dress that can be worn to a variety of occasions, from a formal event to a casual day out. It's a dress that can be worn by women of all ages and body types. It's a dress that can be worn in any season. It's a dress that can be worn in any color. It's a dress that can be worn in any style. It's a dress that can be worn in any way you see fit.
